VOLUME CVI.---NO. 32. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 7, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life" which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such fears are largely warranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her.

Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change of life either in face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health with the health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or personal inability to enjoy life.

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' brought me safely through that difficult period, called 'change of life,'" writes Mrs. Mary Ensminger, of 344 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, became excited, flustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was fitful and for days I was unable to eat a fair meal. My aunt recommended me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made a great change for the better. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

You may be willing that somebody else shall say that their baby is "just as good" as yours, but you don't want that baby substituted for yours. Let dealers say what they like about other medicines being "just as good" but don't let them substitute anything for "Favorite Prescription." It is absolutely unequaled.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ADDRESS OF NOBLES.

The assembly of the nobles of St. Petersburg yesterday adopted an address to Emperor Nicholas congratulating him on the birth of an heir to the throne, and assuring him of the confidence of the nation. The address asserts that the union between the autocratic monarch and his devoted nation is unshaken by recent events at home and abroad; points out that officials and statesmen cannot solve all questions, and begs his majesty to permit of representatives of the whole people participating in the discussion and legislation on government measures, and says:

"Sir, we have met in troublous times. Foes are attacking us, their aim being to bring Russia to a shameful peace, wring from her distant territories, and bring to naught the system of government which has been sanctioned by centuries. A way out of the difficulties must be found. We realize that every word addressed by your majesty in this painful hour is weighted with grave responsibility. We are all witnesses to your majesty's efforts to secured the welfare of Russia. The decree of December 25 revived the hopes of your subjects, who saw therein true salvation of the fatherland.

"This is not the first time dark clouds have lowered over Russia; but despite former efforts to shake the basis of the government the country became stronger and advanced proudly and puissantly along the path of progress. From union between an autocratic monarch and a devoted nation Russia has ever derived a strength which neither the foreign foe nor trouble at home could exhaust.

"Sire, the nobility of St. Petersburg are convinced that this union is unshaken and must prevail. With the aid of God, our valiant troops, who are not sparing their lives for the Emperor and the fatherland, will crown the Russian arms with fresh glory and troubles at home will cease.

"Sire, the whole nation awaits with eagerness the fulfillment of the imperial will; but officials and statesmen, of whatever qualities and zeal, cannot solve all the questions of the nation's life. Your forefathers harkened to the voice of Russians elected by the nation, and this custom, so far from weakening, strengthened the autocracy and aided it to attain its present greatness.

"Sire, order now that elected representatives of the country may raise their voices to the throne and participate, in accordance with your sovereign directory, in legislation and discussion of governmental measures. The nobles of St. Petersburg sincerely believe that, provided union of the throne and nation is supported by confidence on the part of the Emperor, internal troubles will vanish and that all Russia will rise and serve the sovereign faithfully, for the salvation and glory of the country and the confusion of its enemies."

The address was adopted by a vote of 158 to 20.

The workmen of St. Petersburg have decided to petition the Emperor to receive a deputation, chosen by themselves, on the ground that the deputation recently received by him at Tsarskoe-Selo was chosen by the masters, and was in no sense representative of the workmen.

Eighty members of the assembly of nobles of Moscow yesterday adopted a declaration strongly criticising the address of the majority of the nobles to the Emperor, on the ground of its failure to indicate a remedy for existing evils, and urging the necessity for the conclusion of peace and the adoption of the principle of representative government.

POLES RIPE FOR REVOLT.

A correspondent had an interview yesterday with Gen. Perron Nolten, Grand Master of Police of Warsaw. In his hands lay the measures for maintaining order in the great city during the recent trouble. He was twice shot at, and he feels that he is the best-hated man in Warsaw. This feeling does not seem in any way to interfere with his good humor.

"It is stated," was the correspondent's first remark, "that the police did not interfere in time a week ago and that this was largely responsible for the dimensions which the disturbances assumed."

"That is not the case," the general replied, "but I am handicapped by the insufficient forces at my command. I have only 1,000 men for a city of nearly 10,000 inhabitants.

"Warsaw is simply an ideal city for rioting. Its houses contain numerous courtyards, from which lead staircases."

"On the occasion of the recent amnesty at the birth of the Czarevitch the prisons were emptied and hundreds of ruffians were turned loose on the streets. The result is, my men are face to face with an impossible task.

"Then my men are badly armed. Their weapons are the saber and revolver, but the latter is simply of no use. The revolver won't shoot through a man's ordinary coat. If these revolvers were in the hands of the strikers they would not cause the least anxiety, but the strikers have excellent weapons. These are smuggled into Poland by revolutionaries. We have found revolvers and 20 roubles in money on men who had no sheets for their beds.

"The present movement is not economic, it is revolutionary. The war is profoundly unpopular, and the mobilization of the reservists has excited the people and made them ripe for the teachings of revolutionary agitation."

Baron Nolten them showed officials reports on the killed and wounded in the recent trouble. The number of former was 74 and the latter 85. It must be stated that these returns are received generally with incredulity in Warsaw. The volume of evidence goes to show that they are considerably understated.

A Touching Story

is the saying from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 7, 1905.

IT WAS stated in Washington last night that August W. Machen and others connected with the conspiracy to defraud the postoffice department would form part of a chain gang that would be conducted to the Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary today. The prisoners, it was stated, are to be shackled to an iron bar that will extend the entire length of the car. Machen and his coadjutors desired to travel in a Pullman car, but as they were to form a portion of a bevy of convicts, their taste for traveling in state en route to the penitentiary will not be gratified. This seems to be an unnecessary exhibition, but the way of the transgressor is hard. Machen has asked permission to carry Greek and Latin books with him, but whether he will be allowed to do so remains to be seen. But little sympathy is manifested for scholars and linguists when in durance vile. During the civil war Colonel d'Utassy, of the Garibaldi regiment, was arraigned for defrauding the government and sentenced to one year's confinement in the penitentiary. When he reached that institution he called the superintendent's attention to the fact that he could speak six or seven different languages. The unfeeling official told his prisoner that but one dialect was spoken on the premises, and precious little of that. A minister whose wont it was to preach to inmates of a penitentiary was once accosted by an acquaintance who asked him how he worded his discourses in order to reach the comprehension of his low class of hearers. The preacher somewhat astonished his friend when he told him that his audiences in the penitentiary were far more cultured than a large percentage of those that gather in churches. The man of the cloth, continuing, said he had ex-bank officers, ex-railroad officials, scholars and linguists among his auditors, some of whom could read the original Greek of the New Testament with more ease than their preacher, and he consequently had to be extremely careful in preparing his sermons.

A PRACTICAL illustration of the power of the trusts is presented in the following dispatch from New York:

The beef trust has put up the price of cold storage eggs in New York 2 cents a dozen. This it was enabled to do because agents of the trust had bought up—or "cornered"—the supply of cold storage eggs in New York and Jersey City. According to Expert F. H. Wickware, of the Daily Price Current, there are now about 80,000 cases of cold storage eggs in that vicinity. There is no scarcity, he says. Each case contains thirty dozen eggs, and in 80,000 cases there are 28,800,000 eggs. The raise in price of 2 cents a dozen means that the beef trust will extract $48,000 from New Yorkers for eggs. Week before last, at the very outset of the blizzard, the trust raised the wholesale price of beef half a cent a pound. This was an extra profit of $4 on every whole beef sold in New York. With a daily consumption of 2,000 beeves, the trust is collecting $8,000 a day extra profit out of New Yorkers. The price of the western eggs which the trust hauls here in its meat refrigerator cars was yesterday advanced 3 cents a dozen.

DISPATCHES from London today indicate a slight rift in the war cloud which has hovered unbroken over the far East during the past twelve months. Russia's internal troubles and the succession of reverses which have befallen her arms have, it is believed, caused some of those in authority to seriously doubt the wisdom of continuing the conflict with Japan. The late unhappy scenes in Russia and the problems that that country will soon be compelled to consider have caused numbers of the upper classes to become more conservative and to sigh for peace, provided this desideratum can be obtained on terms not degrading to the nation. There is something apparently going on towards this end. The action of the diplomates in Washington yesterday was not without a purpose, while the dispatches from London today, as well as the tone of the stock market, seem to indicate that attempts, at least, are being made to bring about peace.

A RESPONSIBLE citizen of California has made affidavit that four State Senators have accepted bribes of $350 each during the present legislative session for protecting certain get-rich-quick schemes. It is more than probable that a rigid investigation of the matter would disclose the fact that more than four members of the legislature are "grafters."

The report current that the Crown Prince Frederick William has been placed under arrest for three days by Kaiser William, is characterized by the Kaiser's household as ridiculous and without foundation. There has been no falling out between the Prince and his father. They met at Prince Eitel's bedside daily during Eithel's illness and afterward walked together each day. Their relations were most friendly. The Crown Prince left Berlin yesterday for Florence to visit his fiance the Dutchess Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Schwerin. He will arrive at Florence tonight.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.

The House committee on merchant marine and fisheries today ordered favorable reports on six of the eight bills introduced by the Bureau of Navigation to make more efficient the steamboat regulation laws, whose inadequacy was exposed with horrifying effect by means of the Slocum disaster. The two bills laid aside were those extending the inspection laws to naphtha, motor and and steam launches, and creating a maritime commission to frame rules for steamboat building. The most important of the bills favorably considered is the one exempting sailing vessels from government inspection, except those that carry passengers for hire. Upon the request of Captain James A. Henderson, of Pittsburg; W. B. Pollock and Alexander Smith, of New York, representing the maritime association, the committee amended the bills by directing the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to give public notice of all changes in steamboat inspection regulations. By the terms of another bill inspectors are placed in a regular salary, instead of being paid for each inspection that they make.

Kelley Miller, a Washington negro, and others representing a civic club of this city, were heard today before the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce in support of the Morrell bill, to prevent discrimination by common carriers against passengers travelling between the states, on account of race and color. The bill provides fine and imprisonment as a penalty. Miller explained to the committee that the "Jim Crow" law of the South, although aimed at the negroes and designed to humiliate them, operate against the white man as well.

Argument before the Interstate Commerce Commission was begun this morning in the anthracite coal roads case. Counsel representing the accused coal and transportation companies and William R. Hearst, the appellant, were prepared for the three or four days which will be consumed in presenting to the commission the various aspects of this many-sided controversy. Clarence J. Shearn, Mr. Hearst's counsel, was the first to take the floor. There were about two dozen lawyers on hand to hear his exposition of the evidence adduced in the hearings which the commission has been holding for more than a year. Three paramount propositions were laid down by Mr. Shearn as the issues which make the complainant's case. They were as follows: "First—That six of the respondent railroad companies are parties to an illegal polling contract, or arrangement, whereby interstate freight traffic and consequently the earnings thereof, are divided among them in agreed proportions in violation of Section 5 of the act to regulate commerce. Second—That these six companies, together with three others, by means of a device embodied in the operation of certain contracts in effect fixing the transportation rate on anthracite coal from the mines to tidewater and other interstate points claimed to be and commonly referred to in this case, as coal purchase contracts, departed from the published tariff charges and unjustly and unlawfully discriminated against non-contract shippers of coal. Third—That the published tariff rates of these eight companies from the anthracite coal-fields to tidewater are unreasonably high inherently, and do not bear a fair and reasonable relation to the antecedent cost of the traffic, as delivered for transportation, or in other words to the commercial value of the freight.

The President today sent to the Senate the following nominations: To be Consul General, David F. Wilber, of New York, at Singapore, Straits Settlement; to be United States Marshal, George G. Perry, of Alaska, for Division No. 3, district of Alaska.

Senator Cullom, who is a member of the Senate committee on interstate commerce, and who was formerly its chairman, believes that the Senate ought to pass the House Esch-Townsend railroad rate bill, as soon as it comes over from that body. He thinks that because of the popular demand for legislation on this subject the Senate ought to adopt such a bill as can be made law now and put it on trial, leaving to the next Congress the duty of amending it should there appear to be necessity therefor. Others leaders, however, believe that further investigation by the committee of the House and Senate will result in better legislation than is possible now and that the subject ought to be postponed until the extra session the President proposes to call in the fall. It is said that the President himself since his recent interviews with high railroad officials has been made to see that the railroad rate question involves so many diverse questions that further investigation might be desirable. With the passage of the bill in the House, he will have accomplished the purpose of making this a paramont question and of committing his party to the amelioration of existing conditions. It is said that now the President will not oppose the Senate if it decides to appoint a commission to receive testimony during the summer with the object of adopting legislation next fall.

Postmaster Willcox, of New York, is in Washington conferring with the department officials and members of Congress. Mr. Willcox needs about $100,000 more than the postoffice appropriation bill calls for. "We should have at least four new substations," said Postmaster Willcox today. "If we can secure enough money for their establishment and can get a few extra carriers the New York postoffice will be in good shape. Another thing that brings me here is the tranfer of Station P, which I am trying to have placed in the new Federal building before the completion of that structure."

Consul General John Goodnow, stationed at Shanghi, China, today called at the State Department and formally tendered his resignation to take effect March 31st. He will leave shortly for Shanghi to wind up his official affairs and he now intends to remain there permanently.

It is understood here that the reason Gen. T. L. Rosser declined to enter the race for the Charlottesville postoffice is that he wants the position of Collector of Internal Revenue for the Alexandria district, the position now held by Mr. Park Agnew.

Secretay Taft under today's dispatches has sent the following cablegram to Governor General Wright in the Philipines. "I salute and congratulate the first American Governor General of the Philipine Islands, and wish him the same success which has attended his administration as civil governor."

The dates for the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club has been fixed for March 23 to April 13, inclusive.

Thomas J. Thompson, a watchmaker, hanged himself this morning in the kitchen of his home at 1235 I street by attaching the rope to the steam pipes overhead. He leaves a wife and five children. He was 55 years old.

News of the Day.

Virginia Carroll, one of the best-known bookmakers in this country, is dying of throat trouble at New Orleans.

The Senate amendments to the Newfoundland reciprocity treaty, it is believed, will prevent the acceptance of the treaty.

A replica of the bronze bust of Washington which was destroyed by the fire at the Capitol in 1851, will be presented to Congress by the people in France February 22.

Pastor Monnier, of the French Protestant Church in Paris, delivered an address at the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city on Sunday last on the needs and work of the church.

A white powder was found in the barrel of a stylographic pen said to belong to Johann Hock, the alleged "Bluebeard," and two more women have been found claiming to be his wives.

Mrs. Brodie L. Duke was again remanded to prison in New York yesterday for examination, before which she declared her husband had not forsaken her. A statement by counsel for Mrs. Duke caused a sensation. It was that the prisoner had reason to believe that she was to be mother in consequence of her marriage to Brodie L. Duke.

Receiver Loeser filed a list of the creditors of Mrs. Chadwick, together with the amount due each, so far as known, in the United States Bankruptcy Court at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday. While it is understood, unofficially, Mrs. Chadwick's debts will aggregate close to $2,000,000, the claims thus far presented to the receiver foot up a total of only $63,310. The valuation of Mrs. Chadwick's estate was not given by the receiver, but it is generally believed that, all told, the property is not worth to exceed $50,000.

ASSASSINATION OF PROCURATOR GENERAL.

News of the assassination yesterday of Soisalon Soininen, Procurator-General of Finland, though received in St. Petersburg, was not generally known last night. It may be expected to produce an immense sensation when it becomes public, as it will be regarded as the precursor of an era of terrorism for which the events in January in St. Petersburg and throughout Russia gave the signal.

Until the identity of the assassin is definitely known it will be impossible, of course, to establish the exact motive of the attempt, but the present circumstances in Finland render it almost certain that the crime is of a purely political character and of the same nature as the assassination of Count Bobrikoff, Governor-General of Finland, in June of last year.

The Russification of Finland, as is well known, has been meeting great opposition and creating much bitterness, especially since the formation of the party of active resistance, which was recruited from the bolder spirits of the original party of passive resistance and to which the perpetrator of this latest crime probably belonged.

At the conference of revolutionary parties of Russia, comprising representatives of the Finnish active resistance party, the Polish national league, the Russian emancipationists and other organizations in Berlin last November a programme for concerted action was drawn up. The assassin of Soininen undoubtedly was in touch with the dissatisfied element throughout Russia. As a matter of fact, never before in the history of the empire have events of an anti-governmental nature been in closer connection, as has been shown by the spread of the strike movement, and the assassin of Soininen, though principally inspired by the grievances of the Finnish nationalists, undoubtedly was also spurred on by the use of troops against the strikes in St. Petersburg and elsewhere.

Little is known in St. Petersburg regarding the murdered official, but as Procurator-General he was the adviser of the Finnish Senate, which incurred the enmity of the anti-Russian parties on account of its alleged subserviency to the process of Russification, and Soininen undoubtedly was selected as the representative and responsible victim.

A dispatch from Helsingfors, Finland, says: Salsalon Soininen, Procurator-General of Finland, who before he was ennobled was known by the name of Johnsson, was assassinated yesterday by a young man, whose identity up to the present time has not been determined.

The assassin and Soininen's son were both wounded in a pistol duel following the killing. The motive of the crime apparently was purely political, the slain official being a prominent member of the government party.

The murderer appeared at the Procurator's residence at 11 o'clock and sent in a card bearing in French the name of Alexandre Gadd, who is in the Russian service. The young man, who was smartly dressed in an officer's uniform, was promptly admitted to the official's private study, and on his entrance fired four shots from a pistol, one of the bullets piercing the breast of the Procurartor, who expired almost immediately.

Soininen's 17-year-old son, hearing the shots, rushed in from an adjoining room and fired three or four shots at his father's assailant, whose right leg was broken below the knee by a bullet. The assailant was also slightly wounded in the shoulder and a finger of his left hand was struck.

The assassin fired the one bullet remaining in his pistol at Soininen's son, wounding him slightly in the calf of the right leg. He then tried to escape, but fell unconscious to the floor in the anteroom. There he was seized. The assassin was removed to the surgical hospital, where he lies guarded by police, answering no questions, and evidently unconscious. His recovery, however, is thought to be certain.

Up to the present the authorities have been unable to identify him. He is of dark complexion and apparently between 25 and 30 years of age.

Soininen was born in Finland in 1856 and practiced at the bar before beginning his political career.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond News-Leader writes: Representative Slemp has decided that when Park Agnew's term is out as collector of internal revenue of the First district the place must go to some one he likes better than Agnew.

Thus is the scalp of the deposed chief already dangling on the pole of the big warrior who is in charge of republican affairs in Virginia. Slemp and Agnew never loved each other, despite the fact that Slemp once put his arm around Agnew and said a few nice things to him several months ago. That was before Slemp was anointed and heralded as the real "dough" and big chief.

Agnew is complacently waiting for the axe to fall. The president and Secretary Shaw have decided that Agnew shall not be removed before his term expires. That far they have gone. They have not decided that he shall not be reappointed, but Slemp has, and if the President is not to ignore Slemp altogether he will be compelled to pay some attention to his endorsements.

So far Slemp has not received much encouragement for all his troubles. The President has rather taken charge of affairs himself and has done things in Virginia without letting Slemp know anything about it.

Now, there are the cases of Captain J. E. B. Stuart and General Rosser. Slemp had not the remotest idea that the President was going to kick Morgan Treat into a dump heap and put in Stuart. Neither did he know that the President intended to give Rosser a place.

It all came about suddenly to the old man from the Ninth district. He does not like Rosser "a little bit," but he must do as the President says and gave his approval to the appointment. Slemp fears that Rosser will be trying to run the republican outfit in Virginia in a few months after he gets in and Slemp doesn't want to relinquish his power yet. He is ambitious and hopeful. He continues to tell the President that Virginia will elect a republican governor this fall.

Slemp is having a real hard time of it as a leader. Between the suddenly conceived and quickly executed notions of the President and the fighting and wrangling over the little jobs in Virginia the congressman is faring badly. Still he has high hopes.

Somebody asked Park Agnew here the other day why he resigned, suggesting that the chairmanship was such a valuable thing he ought to have held on to it, at least until he had procured such promises as he desired as to his own retention and that of some of his friends.

He frankly stated that if he had remained as State chairman everything that went wrong would have been laid to him.

If the republicans are defeated for governor this fall, as they will be, he would have been blamed for the management of the campaign and lack of sincerity. Now the whole responsibility is on the Slemp people. They will not be able to blame anybody but themselves.

Agnew chuckles quietly as he thinks of it all. He fails to see the visions of success, the delirium of republican victory that Slemp has painted in his own mind. Agnew is too practical.

DR. ALDERMAN TO CRITICS.

President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia, last night gave out the following statement with reference to his speech delivered before the Southern Society of New York:

"There has been some criticism and discussion of the speech made by me before the Southern Society in New York city on December 14 last. The criticism has been based upon a few lines sent out by the Associated Press summing up a forty-minutes speech. I was speaking to 500 southern men in New York city. I am a southern man. Devotion to the South and desire to serve it constructively has been the guiding principle of my life for twenty years. I would not know how to approach a subject touching southern life unsympathetically. I do, however, believe in looking at things steadily and squarely, in forming honest judgments, and in uttering them whenever and wherever they may do good. What I said was, in part, as follows:

"The old-time had its leaders and they were the best-trained men for their tasks that this country has seen, and the places that trained them were the best places for training such men for such tasks. The old-time furnished the nation its best conception of the sacredness of public service and public probity, and let us thank God that the succession of our public men from Calhoun to Tillman, inclusive—a considerable distance—is free from any sort of sordidness or personal dishonor.

"Our leaders frequently suggest inadequately the antique type. Not because they are weak men or bad men. They are emphatically neither. They have brains, character, courage, and genius for politics. They are inflexibly honest. They are idealistic, differing therein somewhat from the leadership of commercial centers whose peril is the peril of materialism and a conception of government somewhat selfish and not wholly for the public good. Our leaders, indeed, have many of the virtues of those who have gone before, but they are trying to apply the virtues and equipment of an age that demanded endurance and steadfastness to an age that demands as well creativeness, insight, and economic genius. They simply did not have the opportunity for training in these directions.

"The supreme cry of the South, and the whole nation, indeed, then, is for trained men to help it realize its splendid noble self, not alone through personal courage or civic devotion or stalwart individualism, but through creative activity, community effort, civic unity, and scientific attitude toward social phenomena. The South will get this type when it can train them. Therefore, its supreme need is training—from the country school for the little country boy, to the great university for that same boy grown into prophetic and potential manhood. The whole nation needs the ingrained conservatism and profound idealism of southern leadership, tempered with scholarly insight, as it needs the eternal old democratic party illuminated by scholarly liberalism and kept standing for everlasting faith in men."

Peculiar Disappearance.

J. D. Runyan, of Butlerville, O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms, of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 25c.

Strenuous efforts are being made to induce the Governor to commute the sentence of J. Samuel McCue, who is to be hanged on Friday at Charlottesville for the murder of his wife. As at present advised the governor will not interfere with the administration of justice.

Mr. Phil. Sanford, of near Chiton's, Westmoreland county, lost his residence and furniture by fire Thursday, and the family was turned out of doors in early morning in the bitter cold. It is stated that the baby was badly frozen about the face and limbs before it could be gotten to a neighbor's house.

Vincent W. Jefferson, the local agent at Danville for the Standard Oil Company, was sent on to the grand jury from the mayor's court yesterday on the charge of attempting criminal assault on little Mattie Mehaffey, the 12- year old daughter of Joseph B. Mehaffey, one of the foremen at the Riverside Cotton Mills.

General Thomas L. Rosser, who has just returned to Charlottesville, from Washington, says: "There is no truth in the report that I have been appointed postmaster at Charlottesville, and I will not be. I don't want it." W. G. Saltsman, the incumbent, has also returned from the capital city. He is still confident of receiving the appointment. The general belief is that the contest is between Saltsman and Hulfish."

S. E. Parker, a lawyer, was burned to death Sunday in the commissary of a mill of the Blackstone Manufacturing Company in Dinwiddie county. He was asleep at the time.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of Virginia will meet in Richmond of next week in the Masonic Temple for a session of three days.

WAR IN THE EAST.

Not the slightest information has been received at the War Office in St. Petersburg regarding the reported illness or resignation of General Kuropatkin. On the contrary, the War Office's information indicates no change in the headquarters staff in Manchuria and that the departure of General Grippenberg for St. Petersburg is due to illness. He left Mukden Sunday on his way home.

The version of General Grippenberg's departure now given in the best informed unofficial circles is that he left the front because he exceeded General Kuropatkin's orders in pushing beyond Sandepas and needlessly sacrificed thousands of men. This led Kuropatkin, it is believed, to demand Grippenberg's recall from the command of the second army.

No importance is attached by the War Office to the Japanese movements on the Russian center and left, which are regarded as merely demonstrations.

A war critic, General Heisman, expresses the opinion that the Russians are not likely to surrender the positions captured north of Sandepas, and that a series of encounters there will probably continue until the weather is favorable for a general advance.

General Kuropatkin reports as follows:

"A Russian detachment marched to Santsitse, 12 miles southwest of Sibbon bay. The Japanese at Santsitse and Saodameng were repulsed. The Russian losses were insignificant. The Japanese assumed the offensive along the line to Chuanchuantse Sunday. Several of their batteries advanced, but the Russian artillery repulsed them."

The dockyard authorities at Cronstadt are completing the preparations for active service of the battleship Alexander II, the cruisers Pamyat, Azova and Admiral Korniloff and the gunboat Grozjastchy, which, with the new battleship Slava, will form the second division of the third Russian Pacific squadron. These reinforcements are expected to sail at the end of May.

The Admiralty confirms the statement that the first division of this squadron will leave Libau in the middle of February, but it is pointed out that Admiral Rojestvensky will be unable to await its arrival, because he will have to cross the Indian Ocean before the monsoon season, which begins in March and renders navigation impossible for torpedo boats, small cruisers and coast defense vessels. Admiral Rojestvensky will probably proceed to the far East at the end of February.

To Strengthen the Dardanelles.

Birmingham, Eng., Feb. 7.—The Post hears that Turkey has ordered twenty batteries of new field artillery and fifty guns to be placed in position for the defense of the Dardanelles. The Post gives no inkling as to the significance or the order. If, however, the report proves accurate, the step is in all probability in the direction of making more effective the orders against the passage of any Russian war ships through the straits.

Today's Telegraphic News

More Peace Talk.

London, Feb. 7.—Reports from all the continental capitals support the belief held in New York that peace in the far East is an early possibility. It is understood the Russian government's control of the Siberian telegraph wires is partly due to the unrest among the railway workers, but is also and more especially due to the pressure of urgent messages to General Kuropatkin. What these messages are is not known, but it is thought they have an important bearing on the question of the pursuance or non-pursuance of war any further. It is further stated this morning that Emperor William of Germany had advised the Czar to arrange for a settlement of the differences between his country and Japan, in view of the many troubles which now assail Russia at every point at home. One of the most hopeful signs in Russia itself is the growth of sentiments for peace. It has long been known that the great mass of the Russian people are opposed to the continuance of the fight and this sentiment has now taken hold on Russian officialdom. It is stated on good authority that many of the Russian government officials are strongly inclined to the belief that peace is by far the great necessity of the hour. As a result of these indications of possible peace the stock exchange markets showed an all around improvement today. South African mining shares were firm. American Railway shares were steady, while both Russian and Japanese bonds were dealt in at an advance.

Trans-Siberian Railway Clogged.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—The Trans-Siberian railway has become clogged with the enormous amount of freight which the minister of ways and communications has tried to send over it, and, as a result, an interruption in the arrival of supplies at General Kuropatkin's headquarters is seriously threatened. The minister has devoted his whole attention to sending military goods to the East, and has thus used up all the rolling stock of the road available. There are now 180,000 wagons filled with military and ordinary freight on the line, and it is an extremely slow process to move these cars either way over the single track road.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—The attempt to turn the Japanese left flank inaugurated by General Kuropatkin, on January 25, is now definitely regarded as a failure. The correspondent of the Publishers' Press is informed on reliable authority that General Kuropatkin has asked for 46,000 reinforcements immediately. The authorities are now considering how they may overcome the transport difficulty and get this number of troops to Mukden.

Ice-bound Coast.

Boston, Feb. 7.—Nearly all of the smaller ports on the New England coast between Passamaquoddy and Narragansett bays are closed tightly with ice today, while the larger harbors, including Boston, Portsmouth, New Haven, Portland, Maine, and Providence, are filled with huge floating cakes which impede and endanger navigation. Last night the wind changed to the northwest and a cold wave again swooped over the country. The most notable feature of the ice blockade has been the experience of government lightship No. 6, in attempting to force a passage to Nantucket Shoals. The ship stuck fast in the ice Sunday, and yesterday was forced ashore near Dumpling Rocks in Buzzards' Bay. The gunboat Hist was dispatched from Newport to her assistance and after a hard fight against the heavy floes got within 200 yards of the disabled vessel last night. An attempt will be made to float the lightship and free her from her ice prison today. Not for nearly 60 years have such conditions been known in Buzzards' Bay as at present. The bay is frozen from side to side, almost the entire distance from New Bedford to the Elizabeth Islands. The upper part of the bay is closed to navigation, and the lamps at three lighthouses have been extinguished. Ice boats are skimming over the surface of the harbor. Nantucket is completely icebound and a long blockade is looked for. Practically all the Maine ports east of Portland, are ice bound and shipping is at a standstill. The weather indications are not favorable for an early lifting of the embargo.

Saybrook, Conn., Feb. 7.—The Cornfield lightship which yesterday was cut from her moorings by an ice floe, drifting west from her station, so that she was opposite Duck Island last night, was towed back and put on her station at 9 o'clock this morning by the United States light house tender.

Application for Rehearing.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 7—An application for rehearing in the case of Mrs. Kate Edwards, the Reading murderess, was made to the Board of Pardons, last evening. The board will meet on the day before that set for the woman's execution. The Governor is daily receiving many letters asking for executive clemency. These letters are so numerous that the Governor has prepared a form of reply to all, in which he points out that by the provisions of the constitution he is debarred from pardoning a convict or commuting a sentence unless so directed by the pardon board. What action may follow the receipt of the application for a rehearing is not known. It was reported from Reading that a petition in Mrs. Edwards' behalf, containing 200,000 signatures, will be sent to the Governor today. This petition had not reached the Governor at noon.

Fires.

Utica, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Fire early this morning destroyed the large Merchant Iron Mill at Rome, owned by former State Senator Stevens. The blaze started in the machine shop and rapidly spread throughout the building. Although the fire was discovered soon after it started, nothing could be done to save the building, as there was no water pressure in the city water plant. Two hundred men are thrown out of work.

Port Jervis, N. J., Feb. 7.—The Erie Railroad coal dumps, together with a large number of cars, were destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $130,000.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 7.—There was a curious indifference on the part of stock speculation to the unusually good character of the morning's news. Prices, it is true, were generally higher, but there was no such general buoyancy as prevailed at times in the course of the bull movement. In the railroad list gains approximating a point were made in several cases. In the industrials United States Steel stocks were strong. The opening of the second hour brought strength to the general list with especially sharp advances in Norfolk and Western.

Mysterious Death.

New York, Feb. 7.—The police today are investigating the death of a woman who, they state, is Elizabeth Simadi, of Lodi, N. J. The woman, with a man who says he is Dr. Clarence McDonald, registered at the Adelphia Hotel, last night, and early this morning she was found dead in the room occupied by them. The doctor, who gave his address as the Mills Hotel, on Bleecker street, is detained by the police pending the result of the autopay.

A thorough examination of the body disclosed a slight cut under the right eye, and a dozen or more discolorations about the eyes, face, and body. McDonald, when questioned, said that the bruises and marks, as well as the cut were some three days old. He declared that the woman had received them in the course of an altercation she had had with him. He declared that he was a physician and ascribed the woman's death to kidney trouble.

Remarried Former Wife at Deathbed.

St. Louis, Feb. 7.—Ed. Cuthbert, formerly left fielder on the Philadephia ball team and later famous as one of the St. Louis Browns, died yesterday, soon after his deathbed marriage to his former wife, Mrs. Mary Ross. Cuthbert, who had been conducting a saloon, recently got into a bad way financially as well as physically. Among the friends who came to his aid with money was his former wife. This touched the heart of the old ball player, and when he realized he was dying he pleaded that he be remarried. The body will be sent to Philadephia.

Jack the Ripper in Milan.

Milan, Italy, Feb. 7.—Milan has a Jack the Ripper, who is outdoing, in ghoulish details, the notorious murderer of the Whitechapel district of London. This latest ghoul is conducting his work in Limbiate cemetery in the outskirts of Milan. He disinters bodies, cuts off their arms, legs, and head, and then dismembers the corpses. His latest outrage was perpetrated yesterday, when the body of a young woman was thus treated. The police have no clue to the idenity of the ghoul.

Result of Strike.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Hundreds of workmen connected with the lumber industry are out of employment as a result of the strike of the lumber teamsters inaugurated Monday and the number will swell into the thousands before the end of the week, according to officers of the lumbermen's association. "There is scarcely an industry in the city that will not feel the effects of the strike by the end of the week," said Edward Sines, president of the Lumbermen's Association.

More Bloodshed in Poland.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—It is reported that conflicts between strikers and troops occurred at Radom and Skargizki, Poland, today. At Radom twenty persons were killed or wounded, while at Skargizki four strikers were killed and forty wounded.

Situation in Tiflis.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—It is reported the situation at Tiflis and Batoum is worse than it has been at any time since the strike was inaugurated. At Tiflis several persons have been killed or wounded.

Double Suicide in Washington.

Washington, Feb. 7—Theodore Fisher and Stella Yates, his common law wife, were found dead this morning at their home in southeast Washington. A .22 calibre revolver, clutched in the woman's hand, caused the double homicide.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The general debate on the bill creating two States out of the territories of Oklahoma and Indian territory and New Mexico and Arizona was concluded yesterday with a speech by Mr. Beveridge, which consumed the greater part of the day's session. The Senate met at noon today. A vote will be had on the bill before adjournment this evening.

The House began debating the proposed legislation looking to the regulation of railway freight rates. Opposition by the democrats was led by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, to the adoption of a rule which would shut out opportunity to amend the bill. Two republicans, Messrs. Southwick and Vreeland, of New York, voted against the rule, and one democrat, Gaines, of Tennessee, voted for it. Otherwise party lines were tightly drawn.

Mr. Williams contended that if that opportunity for offering amendments were given the democrats had with them a sufficient number of republicans to pass a bill embodying in all its particulars the views of the President. He offered to surrender all the time allotted to his side for debate, and to forego a vote on the minority substitute if amendments would be allowed to be offered, but the appeal was refused by the majority. The fairness of the rule to all members was declared by Mr. Dalzell to be apparent.

Messrs. Townsend, of Michigan, one of the authors of the bill under consideration, and Richardson, of Alabama, occupied the remainder of the day discussing it, both sounding a note of warning to the railroads that unless they joined hands with Congress in the matter the people would demand more drastic legislation.

Before taking up the question of freight rates the House adopted the replication of its committee of seven managers to the reply of Judge Swayne to the impeachment charges, in which it was reiterated that Judge Swayne is guilty of the crimes alleged against him.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Miss J. Anna Carpenter, the golfing expert, was married to Vernon J. Hall, of the chair of chemistry at the Northwestern University, at St. Louis, Monday. The ceremony took place at Florence, Ky.

Hon. Joseph Manley, a leading republican of Maine and well known throughout the country, was found dead in bed at his home in Augusta this morning. He was 63 years of age.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Demolition of a Landmark.

The work of demolishing the old building on the northeast corner of King and St. Asaph streets and the structure adjoining on the east has been commenced, and soon two of the most ancient landmarks in Alexandria will have been obliterated. The old corner has been used for various purposes during the past half a century. Some residents remember when the late Robert Hunter conducted a cigar manufactory there in the early fifties. The late David Appich later used it for a confectionery, and subsequently Mr. George W. Francis opened a china and glassware store in the building. Mr. J. T. Cox converted it into a book and periodical store, it was subsequently used for saloon purposes by the late James Nowland, and during late years Mr. F. Tubia dispensed fruits from it. For half a century Mr. Henry Breagle conducted a bakery and confectionery in the adjoining building. The sites will be used for a large and imposing structure for the Citizens' National Bank.

Cold Again.

The mild weather of yesterday was followed last night by colder conditions, and the northwest wind roared considerably before daybreak. The mercury at seven o'clock yesterday morning stood at 27°; this morning at the same hour it was hovering near the 20 mark. The temperature today has been crisp. The thaw which set in yesterday was arrested by falling temperature last night, and this morning the ice was as firm as ever. Experiments with dynamite were made yesterday by the authorities of the District of Columbia. The experiments were carried on between the railway and the highway bridges in the Virginia channel. There is said to be five inches of hard ice, two inches of rotten ice, and three inches of snow. The dynamite was put down into the water through holes in the ice. The experiments showed that little can be done until the ice begins to move, but gives promise of being very effective when the proper time comes.

Preparing for Twenty-Second.

The executive committee of the Washington Birthday Celebration Association held a meeting last night at the office of Mr. Julian Y. Williams. Mayor Paff, the president of the association, presided. It was unanimously decided to abandon the idea of having public speaking on the 22d, and, instead, to have a banquet in the afternoon of that day. The tickets will be sold to the members of the association and citizens generally at $2.50 each. The president appointed Messrs. J. Y. Williams, W. A. Smoot, jr., and R. M. Graham a committee to secure speakers and music; Messrs. Peter Westelaken, C. B. Marshall and W. W. Ballenger, committee on banquet, and Messrs. J. H. Trimyer, Harry Hammond and R. L. Green committee on tickets.

R. E. Lee Camp.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held last night at their hall, Commander E. H. O'Brien presiding. A communication from the Grand Commander announcing the appointment of the officers of the Grand Camp was read. Capt John A. Holtzman, of Jeffersonton, Va., was named as the inspector of this congressional district. A communication from Maj. R. W. Hunter in reference to the veteran rolls was also read. The committee on the 19th of January banquet made its report and was discharged. The commander appointed committees to prepare resolutions on the death of Comrades Drowns and Ennis.

The Maccabees.

Alexandria Tent, Knights of Maccabees, indulged in a smoker of some proportions last night, quite a large number of members being present. Two candidates were initiated, three propositions for membership were acted upon and arrangements were made for the annual banquet; also an excursion. After routine business cigars were passed around and graphophone selections were enjoyed, interspersed with remarks from members of the tent. The annual roll call showed that no members had passed away during 1904; neither had this tent lost a member by death since its institution in Alexandria in 1896.

Miss Pattison to Wed.

Miss Lorimia R. Pattison, daughter of former Governor Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, will be married this evening at the home of her uncle, Ezra S. Bartlett, in Philadelphia, to Mr. John Lawrence Perry, of the Alexandria National Bank, of this city. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. George W. Izer, pastor of the Coveliant Methodist Episcopal Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Linn Bowman pastor of the Park Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. Miss Pattison will be given away by her uncle. The honeymooon trip will be made to Palm Beach, Fla.

Death of Mr. B. H. Johnston.

Mr. Bernard H. Johnston, of Washington, after an illness of two years, died on Friday last, aged 59 years, and was buried on Sunday. He was a son of the late Dr. W. P. Johnston, of Washington, and married Miss Eleanor Scott, of Bush Hill, Fairfax county, in which county he lived for some years. He was well known in Alexandria and some years ago was associated in business in this city with the late Capt. P. B. Hooe.

Preparing for Social Session.

Messrs. Peter Westelaken, C. C. Carlin, Zora Hill, T. A. Stoutenburgh, G. T. Caton, Frederick A. Russell, Jacob Brill, and Thomas A. Fisher, with the first-named as chairman of the entertainment committee of Alexandria Lodge of Elks, are making preparations for a social session in Elks' Hall Thursday evening next.

Night School.

The night school to be be conducted under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be opened tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the upper room of the old Star engine house on St. Asaph street between King and Prince.

Personal.

Mr. J. H. Massey, of this city, will leave tonight for Norfolk. He will be married tomorrow night to Miss Belle Williams, of that city.

Miss Pauline Nicol, who has been visiting the Misses Marye, left today for her home at Manassas.

Mrs. C. J. Rixey and little daughter, Heurie, have returned to their home at the New Hotel Rammel after a pleasant visit to Charlottesville and Culpeper.

Captain P. J. Murphy and Lieutenant Windsor Demaine of the Alexandria Light Infantry, Company G of the 70th Virginia Regiment, were in Richmond Saturday taking the examination for officers before the State military examining board. They have returned to their homes in this city but the result of the examination will probably not be announced for ten days.

The Bread Thieves.

In the account in yesterday's Gazette of the capture of the four alleged bread thieves the fact that Mr. Samuel Studds arrested the quartette and forced them to enter his wagon at the point of a pistol was unintentionally omitted. Mr. Studds carried his prisoners to the station house where they were taken in charge by Officer Roberts. But one of the suspects was declared guilty, but it is thought that had material witnesses been present true bills would have been found against the quaternion.

Police Court.

Malachi (alias Melchisedek) Thomas, a sable individual, a regular patron of the Police Court, was arrested yesterday by Officers Lyles and Beach at the instance of Henry Washington, colored, who occasionally figures in litigation, on a charge of assault. Washington failed to prove his charge and Thomas was dismissed. This was the only case before the Police Court this morning. The city has been abnormally quiet for some time, the police having been called upon to make but few arrests.

Alleged Thieves Indicted.

Several individuals who are charged with participation in the burglary of the bank at Manassas and the stealing of over seven hundred dollars' worth of stamps were indicted by the grand jury of the Prince William County Court yesterday. An Alexandria youth known as "Cabbage" Drowns was locked up, it being averred that he was seen with the gang on the night of the robbery.

Accident at the Shipyard.

William Hansborough, while engaged in unloading railroad ties from a car at the shipyard this morning, was painfully and, it is thought, seriously injured by a tie falling upon him. One side and one leg received the force of the tie. The injured man was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

The Gazette.

With the year the Alexandria (Va.) Gazette began its 105th year, and we take this opportunity to congratulate that journal upon dismantling the difficulties of the past. Its future is bright with promise. To have lived so long is a triumph in journalism or any other capacity, and indicates strength and intelligence on the part of its staff. For more than a century—or since it was established—the Gazette has been published by the same family line, and we wish it continued prosperity through all the years to come.—[Leesburg (Florida) Commercial.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Ten strangers sought shelter in the station house last night.

New heaters have been placed in the electric cars and these cars are made much more comfortable thereby.

The trial of the case of the Commonwealth vs. W. O. Pollard, set for the 9th, has been continued till the 23d inst.

The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., will meet at Lee Camp Hall tomorrow evening at 3 o'clock.

Nero Taylor, colored, 78 years old, died at his home, 1323 Duke street, yesterday. The deceased was a native of Hanover county.

The steamer Norfolk, due at this port early this morning, did not arrive until nearly 3 o'clok this afternoon. She reports encountering heavy ice in the river and bay.

Marley Encampment of Odd Fellows of this city will pay a fraternal visit to Frederick D. Stewart Encampment of Washington on Tuesday night, the 14th instant.

Mr. Frank Smith, of the Adams Express Company, while unloading a heavy box from his wagon at Armour's packing house on Union street yesterday had one of his legs badly cut by the box falling on him.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Ira F. Hutchinson and Lena H. Anderson, both of Fairfax county, and to George F. Schuerger and Myrtle May Newcomb, of St. Elmo.

The funeral of the late Miss Sarah J. Cash took place this afternoon from the residence of Mr. J. L. Smith, on north Royal street, and was attended by relatives and friends. Rev. Mr. Ewell conducted the services.

Many of the buoys marking the ship channel in the Potomac have been broken off and shoved out of position by the ice, and when the ice begins to drift many more will be displaced. The drifting ice cuts the wooden spar buoys like a knife until the big sticks are whittled down to nothing, leaving only the stump under water.

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Rosslyn Brick Company held at the Hotel Rammel yesterday, the following officers were elected: T. Baker Weaver, president; George W. Wise, vice president; George A. Weaver, treasurer; E. R. Haight, secretary and general manager. The officers, with R. W. Darley, will compose the board of directors.

The Sunshine of Spring.

The Salve that cures without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cuts, Burns, Boils, Bruises and piles disappear before the use of this salve as snow before the sunshine of spring. Miss H. M. Middleton, Thebes, Ill. says: "I was seriously afflicted with a fever sore that was very painful. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in less than a week." Get the genuine. Sold by all druggists.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 7.

SENATE.

Immediately after the approval of the journal today, the Senate resumed consideration of the statehood bill. Nearly every Senator was in his seat, and the public and private galleries were filled, in anticipation of an exciting session that, under a previous agreement, is to bring to an end the consideration of a measure that has been the regular order of business since the assembling of Congress in December. Under that agreement, all amendments are to be taken up in regular order, and to be voted upon when the debate on each, conducted under the ten minute rule, is exhausted. The bill itself will be voted upon before today's session closes.

Mr. Perkins presented a memorial from the legislature of his State, praying that the question of joining Arizona and New Mexico be left to a vote of the people of each of those territories.

The first amendment taken up was one by the committee in charge of the bill, prohibiting the grant or sale of intoxicating liquors for ten years in that part of the proposed State of Oklahoma known as Indian Territory.

Mr. Gallinger offered an amendment to the amendment prohibiting the sale or giving away of liquors for 21 years in the entire State, and making a misdemeanor the manufacturing and barter of beer, ale, and wine, with a penalty of from 30 to 100 days and from $50 to $200 fine.

Mr. McLaurin favored prohibition but contended that the legislation should be left to the State and not be fixed by Congress.

Mr. Stone thought likewise.

Mr. Morgan objected to the prohibition relative to beer and light wines. He declared that it would kill a promising grape industry.

Mr. Bailey said he would not vote for the amendment, as it was attempiag to impose the will of Congress upon a defenseless people, as a condition precedent to statehood; an interference with the police power.

Mr. Bacon thought the proposed substitute too drastic; he favored the committee amendment.

Mr Foraker held that it was not competent for Congress to legislate in a police regulation.

Mr. Heyburn took a similar view.

Mr. Spooner favored the questionable practice of such limitation, he said, only because of the peculiar conditions existing.

The Gallinger amendment was carried by a vote of 55 to 20.

Those voting against were: Alger, Ankeny, Bacon, Bailey, Ball, Clark (Mont.), Clark (Wy.), Clay, Culberson, Daniel, Dietrich, Foraker, Foster, Gorman, Heyburn, Kean, Kearns, McLaurin, Nelson, Wetmore.

Mr. Gorman interrupted the roll call to protest against pairs. He was declared out of order. Later, he contended that pairs were by custom confined to party questions. He thought this was not one.

Senator Morgan offered an amendment to except wine of "domestic production and manufacture," from the proposed prohibition. It was lost.

Senator Foraker's amendment leaving to the vote of the people of each of the territories of Arizona and New Mexico the question as to the adoption of constitution combining them in one State, was adopted, without a division. This is a big surprise. It means that unless the people of Arizona desire to cast in their lot with that of New Mexico, in a United State, they will be given the opportunity to reject the legislation of that State. This is what Arizona people have been fighting for, and the opportunity will be availed of to reject statehood so long as it is offered only in conjunction with the sister territory.

At 3:45 o'clock a vote on the bill had not been taken.

HOUSE.

There was not a corporal's guard on the floor when the House met at 11 o'clock today and in committee of the whole continued the debate on the Esch-Townsend railroad rate bill.

Mr. Richardson, who was speaking when the House adjourned yesterday, was given thirty minutes more to complete his argument for the Davey bill. Probably three score members all told heard his argument.

Mr. Richardson attacked the Hearst bill which two democratic members of the commerce committee had reported in lieu of the Davey bill as radical and leaning toward government ownership of the railroads. He denied that any provisions of the Davey bill were taken from the Hearst bill, accepting that which has previously been made public by several democrats.

Mr. Rainey in reply said that he reiterated the charge, speaking for himself, that the Davey bill was part of the Hearst bill. The Davey bill, however, did not go far enough and it was not as good as the Esch-Townsend bill, therefore, he declared, he would vote for the republican measure.

Fiendish Suffering

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; guaranteed.

Nothing Equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. P. B. Spears, of Pinchard, Ala, has become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and uses it in his own family and in his practice. He says: "It beats any preparation I have ever seen for all bowel complaints, I do not think of recommending any other, and also use it with my own children." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The magnificent palace of the Grand Duke Ernest of Saxe-Altenburg, at Altenburg, Germany, was burned during last night. A number of valuable pictures, treasures and manuscripts were destroyed.

General Schallenberger, American Assistant Postmaster General who has been in Paris endeavoring to arrange for a parcels post between France and the United States, left this morning. His interviews with the French officials have had satisfactory results. An understanding regarding definite parcels post agreement has now reached the point desired by the American postal department.

Struggle Renewed.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 7.—The Delaware legislature commenced its biennial struggle today to elect a United States Senator, John Edward Addicks as for the past ten years, is the stumbling block, the republicans have thirty-one votes on joint ballot, which is enough to elect a Senator on the first ballot, but nine republicans are opposed to Addicks and refuse to abide by a caucus. The vote today was Addicks, 22, Col. Henry A. Dupont, 9; Willard Saulsbury, 21. Then balloting will continue from day to day until a Senatsr is elected or the legislature adjourns. Regular republicans say that that the deal last fall was for union republicans to elect a regular republican as successor to Senator Ball.

Forty Prunes

to a pound. These are the cleanest, plumpest Prunes in the city, and it's a shame to sacrifice them for 8c a Pound.

But we have too many---so let them go.

Fancy Evaporated Peaches, 10c a pound. This is a bargain, too, for on today's market they are costing 12 1-2c.

Apricots, 15c.

One of our coffee customers said: "I have tried coffee from every store in this city and your gives me better satisfaction than any. Some coffees have cost me 40c a pound, and are not near so good as your Bourbon."

We blend it here and it sells for 20c a pound.

Rapid Spread of Plants.

It is marvelous how rapidly some plants will spread themselves over wide stretches of land. The writer was struck with the way in which the yellow charlock took possession of the line when the Meon Valley railway was being made. The very next spring after the embankments were thrown up their sides were clothed with this rampant and conspicuous crucifier. A line of yellow across the country marked in many places the course of the railway. Poppies, too, for some unknown reason, will occasionally appear in strange and wonderful profusion. The striking instance related by Lord Macaulay may be quoted by way of illustration. After the battle of Landen the ground, he tells us, "during many months was strewn with skulls and bones of men and horses and with fragments of hats and shoes, saddles and holsters. The next summer the soil, fertilized by 20,000 corpses, broke forth into millions of poppies. The traveler who, on the road from St. Tron to Tirlemont, saw that vast sheet of rich scarlet spreading from Landen to Neerwinder could hardly help fancying that the figurative prediction of the Hebrew prophet was literally accomplished—that the earth was disclosing her blood and refusing to cover the stain."—Longman's Magazine.

A Zuni Baby.

The Zuni child spends his early days in a cradle. But a cradle in Zuniland does not mean down pillows, silken coverlets and fluffy laces; it is only a flat board, just the length of the baby, with a hood like a doll's buggy top over the head. Upon this hard bed the baby is bound like a mummy, the coverings wound round and round him until the little fellow cannot move except to open his mouth and eyes. Sometimes he is unrolled and looks out into the bare whitewashed room, blinks at the fire burning on the hearth and fixes his eyes earnestly on the wolf and cougar skins that serve as chairs and beds and carpets in the Zuni home. By the time he is two or three years old he has grown into a plump little bronze creature, with the straightest of coarse black hair and the biggest and roundest of black eyes. He is now out of the cradle and trots about the house and the village. When the weather is bad he wears a small coarse shirt and always a necklace of beads or turquoise.—St. Nicholas.

A Thousand Ways of Lying.

There are a thousand ways of lying, but all lead to the same end. It does not matter whether you wear lies, tell lies, act lies or live lies, your character is ruined all the same.

There is no more demoralizing influence in modern life than the unnatural straining to seem other than we are. Nothing else so quickly lowers self respect, takes the fine edge off honor and blunts the conscience as the sense of being a sham, a gilded fraud or an unreality. It cheapens standards, lowers ideals, saps ambition and takes the spring and joy out of living. No man can make the most and the best of himself until he is absolutely honest with his own soul and unfalteringly true to his highest ideals, and this is impossible while he is living a lie.—Success.

The Moorish Woman at Home.

When not fixed up for visitors the Moorish woman is always en dishabille, lounging about all day in a loose cotton or muslin nightgown, rose or yellow being her favorite shade, her bare feet thrust into slippers very much down at the heel and a flower stuck in her wisp of uncombed hair, which, from a continual use of henna dye, is apt to break out in patches of yellow, green or gray. Hairbrushes are unknown, a very coarse comb alone being used, which may account for the fact that the hair is never glossy or well kept. She has a devouring passion for paints, powders and perfumes, attar of roses and sandalwood being in special demand.—Pilgrim.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Give Your Stomach a Rest.

Your food must be properly digested and assimilated to be of any value to you If your stomach is weak or diseased take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong a sin. Kodol cures sour stomach, gas, bloating, heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. Sold by all druggists.

Bad breath, belching of gas and sour risings are due to Indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a guaranteed cure. L. A. Soper of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the commendations that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl when she was three years old. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when any thing disagrees with her." Kodol is the best medicine in the world for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. A trial of this greatest of all digestants will convince any who suffers. Good for young or old. Sold by all druggists.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
